Petersbourg, June 12.

THIS Court has received a Courier from Felt Marshal Munich, with a further Account of that General's having taken the last Fort the Turks had on the Earthen Wall of the Perecop, called by the Ottoman Porte, Ore, and by the Russians, Perecop, in which were 84 Pieces of Brass Cannon, and 2500 Janissaries, who surrendered themselves Prisoners of War, without making any considerable Resistance; that 1800 of those Janissaries had been landed there by the Captain Bashaw but a very few Days before that Fortress was taken by the Muscovites, and that it was by much the strongest of any at the Perecop, as it was also the only one that had a Gate or Passage through the Wall, and wherein the Turks always kept a Garrison and several Officers, to collect the Tribute and Customs due to the Grand Signior. That as the Russians were now entire Masters of all the Forts at the Perecop, Felt Marshal Munich (having left Major General Reppenine with 4000 regular Troops and 3000 Cossacks there, to secure that important Pass) was, with the Gros of his Army, advanced about 20 Miles into the Crimea.

Hambourg, July 7, N. S. They seem here inclin'd to follow the Example of the King of Great Britain and the States General, in acknowledging King Augustus and King Stanislaus with the same Terms. His Danish Majesty's Illness, and perhaps also the Want of some formal Notifications, are the only Impediments to the Dispatch of that Affair. Yesterday the King of Denmark gave Audience at Altena to the Dukes of Mecklenburg, Sunderberg, Glucksburg, and Ploen; and also to Monsieur Bulow, and Count Kevenhuller, the Saxon and French Ministers; and towards the Evening came into this City with the Queen, and took a Turn upon the Ramparts in his Coach. After his Return to Altena, he was saluted by a Discharge of the Artillery from the Walls of this City; his Majesty having forbid the Firing of the Guns upon his coming in and going out of the Gates. The King continues well; and proposes on Monday next to appear in Publick for the first Time, which will also probably be the last during his Majesty's Stay in these Parts; for as he is impatient to get back to Copenhagen, his Departure is said to be fixed for Wednesday next.

Hanover, July 10, N. S. On Sunday last M. de Nitzschwitz, who came hither on the Part of the Prince of Nassau Ullingen, to compliment the King on his safe Arrival in his German Dominions, had his Audience of Leave. M. le President de Schart, deputed on the Part of the Nobility of Bremen, to make their Compliments to his Majesty on the same Occasion, has been introduced to an Audience of the King.

Hague, July 13, N. S. By the freshest Advices that we know the Court of Petersbourg have received from their Army before Asoph, General Lacy had not then made a Breach, but the Besieged, making a vigorous Sally, had been repulsed with Loss, and the Russian General hoped soon to reduce the Town, having augmented his Batteries; and it was the common Opinion in Muscovy, when our last Letters came from thence, that as soon as the News of the Reduction of Perecop and the Invasion of the Crimea shall have reached Asoph, that Garrison would capitulate. The same Letters add, that General Munich's Instructions extend as far as to undertake the Siege of Capha. M. Booy, the Pensionary of Rotterdam, having engaged several of the Towns of North Holland in his Behalf, was this Day chosen, by a great Majority of Votes, one of the two Secretaries of State for Holland, in the Room of M. Fabricius, lately deceased. The Command of the Regiment of Dragoons, vacant by the Death of M. du Portail, was at the same time given to M. Heylman, Lieutenant Colonel in the said Regiment.
